Please note that this is only an information sheet (valid for one year) and will be used for selection. The Registrar's office will only contact you if there are vacancies in the grade you requested. The school reserves the right to select who will be called for the interview after perusal of the information. Please note that the admission procedure is standardized and impartial. Any sort of undue influence may occur in the rejection of your child's application. Note that parents and the child will be required to attend the interview. laps
